The place to find updates on CKI policy and projects

Circle K International district officers and members,

It is with great pleasure that for the past year your CKI executive committee has been hard at work putting together a series of publications and educational pieces that have been re-branded as the CKInsider library. Together these provide CKI members with a wealth of knowledge on up-to-date information about CKI. From recent board actions, to handy how-tos, the CKInsider series aims to answer the questions of all, from the member to the district officers.

Perhaps the most exciting aspect of this change from previous publications, such as International Speaking, is the quick turnaround time. As soon as a need is identified by the executive committee or via submissions from CKI members, it only takes about a business week to draft an issue of CKInsider, have it reviewed by the International Office's content team and publish it

With my year as vice president now coming to a close, I want to make sure the immediate needs of the organization are filled. If there are any more CKInsiders you'd like to see published prior to International Convention, send them to VP@circlek.org and I'll get them out as soon as we can.

Changing the world together,

Ricardo J Torres
